

IS CORNERSTONE SPECIALTY HOSPITAL RIGHT FOR MY PATIENT?

Does the patient require extended recovery time in a specialized acute care setting with daily physician intervention and frequent nursing?

YES: Does the patient have an a Long-Term Acute Care Hospital (LTACH) benefit? Or is the payor willing to do a Single Case Agreement or Letter of Agreement? If Medicare: Does the patient have 3 midnights in a billable ICU or at least 96 hours on a ventilator?

NO: Does the patient have multiple lower-level denials and/or multiple recent admissions?

NO: No coverage. Must pursue a lower level of care.

YES: Does the patient have acute medical conditions that fit into one of the following categories?

NO: More appropriate for a lower level of care.

Ventilator-dependent with respiratory failure
Complex wound care with at least 1 acute comorbidity
Respiratory complexity with at least 2 acute comorbidities
Medically complex with at least 2 acute comorbidities

YES: Your patient may benefit from specialized long-term acute care and rehabilitation at a Cornerstone Specialty Hospital.

CORNERSTONE
SPECIALTY HOSPITALS
Empowered by ScionHealth

NEXT LEVEL CARE. NEXT LEVEL RECOVERY.

Contact your clinical liaison or visit
CornerstoneHospitals.com to learn more.